Yn gyntaf oll, maddeuer hwyrineb y llythyr hwn yn dyfod atoch, ond oherwydd yr Eisteddfod Genedlaethol ac amgylchiadau personol, bu'r llythyr yn hir yn cyrraedd eich llaw, ond yr un yw'r neges diffuant, sef i ddiolch yn fawr iawn ichi am eich gymorth-dal i Neuadd Goffa Cyffordd Llandudno, nid yn unig y tro hwn, ond ar hyd y blynyddoedd, yn wir, credaf na fuasai'r Neuadd Goffa wedi aros yn agored, ond am eich cymorth hael chwi. Derbyniwch eto ein diolch ar ran pwyllgor y Neuadd Goffa".
Trystan Lewis. Cadeirydd y Neuadd Goffa.

"Dear Mayor, Councillors and Clerk of Conwy Town Council.

First of all, forgive the lateness of this letter coming to you, but due to the National Eisteddfod and personal circumstances, the letter has long been reaching your hand, but the sincere message is the same, thank you very much for your support to Llandudno Junction Memorial Hall, not only this time, but over the years, indeed, I believe that the Memorial Hall would not have remained open, but for your generous support. Please accept again our thanks on behalf of the Memorial Hall committee".
Trystan Lewis. Chairman of Memorial Hall

3. Janet Finch-Saunders AM/AC

"Dear Mayor, Cllr Goronwy

It is my pleasure to be writing to thank you and all Councillors for the success of Conwy Castles twinning with Himeji Castle. You should all be extremely proud of having contributed to the wonderful partnership. Indeed, not only is it historically appropriate as work started on the Castles within half a century of each other, but it has resulted in unimaginable benefits to the Town and wider area. For example, I could not but be impressed by the fact that there has been an 84% increase in the number of Japanese visitors, and that it is estimated that they have spent more than £4.4million during their time here.

Further to you hosting honoured guests from Japan, I welcome that fact that the bonds that unite our communities on different sides of the world have been strengthened, and that work is now underway to try and maximise the opportunities created as a result of the relationship. As always, should there be anything I can assist with, you are welcome to let me know. Kind regards, Janet Finch-Saunders AM/AC"
